

Instructions to Authors

Journal of Korean Society of Dental Hygiene

(Enacted in 2001 and most recently revised in December 2022)

RESEARCH AND PUBLICATION ETHICS

Publication ethics including plagiarism, duplicated publication, and violation of ethics obeys the research and publication ethics. For the policies on the research and publication ethics not stated in this instructions, International standards for editors and authors (https://publicationethics.org/resources/resources-and-further-reading/international-standards-editors-and-authors) can be applied. All cases of suspected misconducts will follow the flowcharts provided by the Committee on Publication Ethics (https://publicationethics.org/guidance/Flowcharts).

1. Statement of Informed Consent and Institutional Review Board Approval

- 1) Clinical research should be done in accordance of the Ethical Principles for Medical Research Involving Human Subjects, outlined in the Helsinki Declaration of 1975 (revised 2000). Clinical studies that do not meet the Helsinki Declaration will not be considered for publication. Copies of written informed consent and Institutional Review Board (IRB) approval for clinical research should be kept. If necessary, the editor or reviewers may request copies of these documents to resolve questions about IRB approval and study conduct.
- 2) An informed consent should be given by the study subjects.
- 3) When reporting experiments with animal subjects, the authors should indicate whether the handling of the animals was supervised by Institutional Board for the Care and Use of Laboratory Animals.

2. Conflicts of Interest Statement

If there are any conflicts of interest, authors should disclose them in the manuscript. A conflict of interest may exist when an author has financial or personal relationships or affiliations that could bias the author's decisions of the manuscript. Authors are expected to provide detailed information about all relevant financial conflicts, particularly those present during the process of research and publication, as well as other financial interests (such as patent applications in preparation) that represent potential financial gain in the future. All disclosures of any potential conflicts of interest including specific financial interests, relationships, and affiliations (other than those affiliations listed in the title page of the manuscript) relevant to the subject of the manuscript will be reported by the corresponding author on behalf of each co-author.

if any, as part of the submission process. Likewise, authors without conflicts of interest will be requested to state so as part of the submission process. If authors are uncertain about what constitutes relevant financial interests or relationships, they should contact the editorial office.

3. Originality and Duplicate Publication

- All submitted manuscripts should be original and should not be considered by other scientific journals for publication at the same time. Any part of the accepted manuscript should not be duplicated in any other scientific journal without the permission of the Editorial Board.
- 2) If duplicate publication related to the papers of this journal is detected, the authors will be announced in the journal and their institutes will be informed, and there also will be penalties for the authors. It is mandatory for all authors to resolve any copyright issues when citing a figure or table from a different journal that is not open access.

4. Author Contributions

Authorship credit should be based on 1) substantial contributions to conception and design, acquisition of data, or analysis and interpretation of data; 2) drafting the article or revising it critically for important intellectual content; and 3) final approval of the version to be published. 4) confirmation of all data, responsibility of the results, and full discussion between the researcher to be open. Authors should meet these 4 conditions.

5. Copyrights and Creative Commons Attribution License

The authors grant the Korean Association of Dental Hygiene to own the full copyright of the final version of the Article once it is accepted for publication. It obeys Creative Commons Attribution Non-Commercial License (CC BY-NC 4.0). Each author must sign in the copyright transfer form.

GENERAL INFORMATION

Journal of Korean Society of Dental Hygiene (J Korean Soc Dent Hyg, JKSDH) is the official peer reviewed research publication of the Korean Society of Dental Hygiene (KSDH). ## 7. Sex and Gender Reporting

Ensure correct use of the terms sex (when reporting biological factors) and gender (identity, psychosocial or cultural factors), and, unless inappropriate, report the sex and/or gender of study participants, the sex of animals or cells, and describe the methods used to determine sex and gender. If the study was done involving an exclusive population, for example in only one sex, authors should justify why, except in obvious cases (e.g., prostate cancer). Authors should define how they determined race or ethnicity and justify their relevance.

MANUSCRIPT PREPARATION

1. Format of Manuscript

- Manuscripts should be submitted in the file format of Hangeul or Microsoft Word. Manuscripts should be written in 10 points or larger, single space with a line margins of 200.
- 2) The original article are limited within 13 pages, and case report and other article are limited within 7 pages. The Editorial Board may request revision of the article pages in case of large volume. Page numbers should be placed at the middle of the bottom of page.
- 3) The original article should be organized in the order of title page and text for fair review. The text consists of article title, abstract, key words, introduction, methods, results, discussion, conclusions, and references. Case report follows the same arrangement of the original article and references. For the fairness of the review, only the title and key words are written and the name and affiliation of the authors are omitted.

- 4) Numbering is as follows.
  - Ex) Methods
    - 1. Subject
    - 1) Experimental group subject
    - (1) Elementary school children group

2. Abbreviation of Terminology

- Use standard abbreviations and units recommended in the Publication Manual of the American Psychological Association (5th edition). Non-standard abbreviations should be defined the first time they appear in the text. When they are used, full expression of the abbreviations following the abbreviated word in parentheses should be given at the first use.
- Citation for Trademark are written in order of Trademark, Corporation, and Nation in parentheses.
- 3) A proper noun including personal name, area, and nation should be given in the original language.
- 4) The number should be given in arabic numeral. Weight and measures should be given in meter, kilogram, and celsius degree (°C).
- Based on International System, the number and unit have a space except mmHg, °C, and %.
- 6) In use of parenthesis, a space should be given after English terminology and figure. In Korean, there is no space between the parenthesis.
- 7) Medical Dictionary and the most recent edition of English-Korean, Korean-English Health Terminology, published by the Korean Medical Association (https://www.kmle.co.kr).
- 8) The use of abbreviations should be used in the case of abbreviations repeated in the text, and the temporary use of non-repeated abbreviations should be prohibited.
- 9) The format for creating the abbreviation explanations is the same as for "abbreviations: explanation".

3. Original Article

1) Title Page

- Title should be concise and precise. The first word should be capitalized. The cover letter includes author names, orcid, academic degree, position, address, affiliation (university, department, city, and nation), author contributions, address, phone number, fax number, and e-mail of the corresponding author should be recorded. The abstract includes the title and key words. The author's information should not be written in the abstract page.
- · Spelling of the Korean author consists of the first name and the family name. The affiliation should be official English designation. Ex) Gil-Dong Hong
- · The title should be written in concise and logical meaning.

- The first word of title begins in a capital letter, and the other words are small letters.
- A running title of no more than 40 characters, including letters and spaces, should be described. If inappropriate, the Editorial Board may revise it.
- A title of no more than 15 characters, including letters and spaces, should be described.

2) Abstract and Key Words

- · Key Words are written in alphabetical order, up to six, and select very specific keywords and use the MeSH keyword (https://www.nlm.nih.gov/mesh/meshhome.html) of the National Library of Medicine.
- All manuscripts should contain a structured abstract that is written only in English. Provide an abstract of no more than 200 words. Abbreviations should be avoided as much as possible. It should contain 4 subsections: Objectives, Methods, Results, and Conclusions.
- · When creating key words for abstract, match the order of the English keywords and the keywords of the Korean.

3) Introduction

- The introduction should address the purpose of the article concisely and include background reports that are relevant to the purpose of the paper.
- The notation when writing English in the main text must follow the lowercase/uppercase notation of the title.

4) Methods

• The methods section should include sufficient details of the design, subjects, and methods of the article in order, as well as the data analysis methods and control of bias in the study. Sufficient details need to be addressed in the methodology section of an experimental study so that it can be further replicated by others. When reporting experiments with human or animal subjects, the authors should indicate whether they received approval from the Institutional Review Board for the study.

5) Results

Results should be presented in logical sequence in the text, tables, and illustrations, giving the main or most important findings first. Do not repeat all of the data in the tables or illustrations in the text; emphasize or summarize only the most important observations. Results can be sectioned by subsection titles but should not be numbered. Citation of tables and figures should be provided as (Table 1) and (Fig. 1).

6) Discussion

 The discussion should be described to emphasize new and important aspects of the study, including conclusions. Do not repeat the results in detail or other information that is given in the Introduction or the Results section. Discussion should not exceed one third of the manuscript.

7) Conclusions

 Describe conclusions according to the purpose of the study but avoid unqualified statements that are not adequately supported by the data. Conclusions may be stated briefly in the last paragraph of the Discussion section.

8) Conflicts of Interest

 Authors must disclose any financial or personal relationships with other individuals or organizations that could influence their work.

9) Acknowledgements

 Persons or institutes who contributed to the paper but not enough to be co-authors may be introduced. Financial support, including foundations, institutions, pharmaceutical and device manufacturers, private companies, or intramural departmental sources, or any other support should be described.

10) References

- The description of the journal reference no more than 30 follows the descriptions below. The references are cited in the order.
- · The Editorial Board may require the original reference list.
- · If a citation has 6 authors, write the 6 authors' names. If there are more than 7 authors, apply 'et al.' at the end of the six authors' s name.
- Ex) Ly KA, Milgrom P, Roberts MC, Yamaguchi DK, Rothen M, Mueller G.
- Ex) Mäkinen KK, Pemberton D, Mäkinen PL, Chen CY, Cole J, Hujoel PP, et al.
- · Citation of the references is as follows. In two authors, Kim and Lee [1]....Above three authors, Kim et al. [1]
